

Inaugural Conference 1985:

World Organisation of Students & Youth, the first international student and youth body with India as headquarter, was launched in Delhi on 29th Oct 1985, on the occasion of the International Youth Year Conference, in the midst of 11,000 Indian and foreign student delegate. Swami Ranganathananda, President of Sri Ramakrishna Ashram and Air Marshal (Retd.) Arjan Singh participated in the inaugural conference of this new organization. Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee inaugurated the WOSY. The inaugural session was attended by 35 foreign students belonging to 14 countries, which witnessed and welcome this initiative. Thus came into being a new organization for the youth with an ambition of a global footprint.